

A diagram consisting of three vertical rectangular panels, each outlined in blue and containing a large gray number. The panels are separated by vertical dashed red lines. The entire set of panels is enclosed within a thin red rectangular border. The background of the entire image is light green.

1

2

3

The diagram shows three adjacent rectangular regions, labeled 4, 5, and 6, arranged horizontally. Each region is outlined with a solid blue border. The regions are separated by vertical dashed red lines. The entire set of three regions is enclosed within a larger rectangular frame defined by a solid red border on the top, bottom, and right sides, and a solid green border on the left side.

4

5

6